

Steve Cotter Spirit of Sport Award

1. Best Lifter of the Year (BLOTY)

1.1 The 2025 AKLU season features the Steve Cotter Spirit of Sport Award, recognizing lifters who demonstrate the highest overall performance across multiple kettlebell sport disciplines.

1.2 This award is presented to the lifter in each division who earns the highest total Cotter Points from up to eight (8) submitted lifts completed during the season at AKLU-sanctioned events, prior to the annual members meeting.

1.3 How to Qualify for the Steve Cotter Spirit of Sport Award

- a) Lifters may submit up to eight (8) individual lift results throughout the season.
- b) At least one (1) lift must be performed in person at a live AKLU-sanctioned event. The remaining may be completed at online AKLU-sanctioned competitions or submitted to the AKLU directly via video submission at designated submission times.
- c) All lifts must be performed at official AKLU-sanctioned events.
- d) All lifters must be AKLU members in good standing.
- e) Eligible disciplines include:
 - Long Cycle
 - Jerk
 - Snatch
 - OALC (One Arm Long Cycle)
 - OAJ (One Arm Jerk)
 - Half Snatch
 - Double Half Snatch
 - Military Snatch

e) Each lift submission requires a $10 fee.

1.5 Scoring Method – Cotter Points

Cotter Points are calculated using the following formula:

$$\text{Cotter Points} = (\text{Kettlebell Weight} \times \text{Kettlebell Coefficient} \times \text{Discipline Coefficient} \times \text{Repetitions}) \div \text{Athlete Bodyweight}$$

The lifter's total Cotter Points from up to 8 lifts determines their ranking for the Cotter Award.
